"Jeff Black has the troubadour quality of a Steve Goodman, the poetic dignity of Bruce Springsteen, and the outer-fringe edge of Townes Van Zandt. We kid you not."

-Steve Morse The Boston Globe

His songs appear on recordings by Alison Krauss, Waylon Jennings, Sam Bush, Jerry Douglas, John Oates, Dierks Bently, Blackhawk, Jo-el Sonnier and more. 2024 started off in Muscle Shoals at FAME studios to begin work on the recording of all new compositions with a handpicked family of musicians and engineers. This new album has been 25 years in the making since recording "Birmingham Road" with Wilco at Willie Nelson's Pedernales Studios outside of Austin. Reuniting with "Birmingham Road" producer, six-time Grammy nominee and three-time Juno nominee Susan Rogers, Jeff Black spent session days recording new songs January 16-18, 2024. Production continues in Nashville Spring 2025. "Anthology" A retrospect of songs recorded 1998-2020 is set to be released March 2025.

In the tradition of the great storytellers, his passionate, soul driven live performances of songs from his vast catalog are not to be missed. When Jeff is not on the road, he lives in Nashville.
